To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mallikarjun (Arjun) Gudumagatte Nagaraja. He has been serving as a Research Analyst Intern with the Digital Studies of the Holocaust project at the Ackerman Center for Holocaust Studies. Arjun is currently pursuing his Master of Science in Business Analytics & Artificial Intelligence at the University of Texas at Dallas.

During his tenure at the Ackerman Center, Arjun has demonstrated exceptional skills in data acquisition, cleaning, and management. His ability to work collaboratively with historians to interpret complex datasets has been invaluable to our project. Arjun's proficiency in creating insightful data visualizations has significantly enhanced our understanding of the data and contributed to the project's success.

In addition to his work with the Digital Studies of the Holocaust project, Arjun has also assisted the Dean's office at the Bass School of Arts, Humanities, and Technology. He played a crucial role in cleaning, organizing, and visualizing enrollment data, which has helped streamline administrative processes and improve data-driven decision-making.

Arjun has also shown great initiative by outlining a project to create a chatbot as the user interface for Holocaust data records. This innovative approach demonstrates his forward-thinking mindset and his ability to leverage technology to enhance user interaction with historical data.

Arjun's dedication, analytical skills, and collaborative spirit make him an outstanding candidate for any position in the field of business analytics and artificial intelligence. I have no doubt that he will continue to excel and make significant contributions wherever he goes. You can review some of the work he helped produce at our website www.ackerman.utdallas.edu/digital-studies-of-the-holocaust.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information.

Sincerely,

Dr. Nils Roemer
